Thesis Title: Exploring Teachers’ Assessment Practices and Learners’ Perceptions towards Assessment in Language Courses Delivered Online
Human touch, through trust and collaboration, seems to be the key to successful assessment in language courses delivered online.

Planning
(Re)designing assessment tasks using new tools

Implementation
Using proctoring services or software

Monitoring
Changing feedback communication methods

Teachers

Learners

“Individualized feedback was really helpful.”

“I want to communicate with a person instead of just a name.”
