Getting Started: Campus Resources

NEW GRADUATE STUDENT ORIENTATION

CAMPUS RESOURCES

- Graduate Assistantships and Fellowships
  You may be eligible for graduate student assistantships, fellowships and financial aid to help fund your studies and related expenses. For more details, visit graduate.gsu.edu/funding-and-costs.

  Individual departments award graduate research assistantships and graduate teaching assistantships to qualified students.

  Assistantships include an annual stipend and a tuition waiver.

  For questions about requirements and more details, contact your college’s graduate director. Find contact information on the college or program site.

  For more information about federal student aid, visit sfs.gsu.edu.

- Downtown Atlanta
  Downtown Atlanta, the heart of the city, is a veritable melting pot of culture and history, dining sports, major attractions and residential living.

  For details about life in downtown Atlanta, including interactive maps and neighborhood profiles, visit atlantadowntown.com.

- Graduate Catalog
  For course offerings and course descriptions, explore the Graduate Catalog at catalogs.gsu.edu/index.php?catoid=14.

- Financial Aid
  For questions about federal aid and the FAFSA, submit a Panther Answer Ticket with the Student Financial Management Center at gsu.my.site.com/support.

- Health Insurance
  As a student in the University System of Georgia, you have access to affordable, high-quality health coverage through United Healthcare.

  For enrollment periods, insurance premiums, waiver information and premium contributions, visit sfs.gsu.edu/tuition-fees/student-health-insurance.

  If you already have comparable health coverage, you can request to waive the insurance requirement.

- Accommodations
  For questions about accessibility and accommodations, contact the Access & Accommodations Center by visiting access.gsu.edu/about-us/frequently-asked-questions.
