January

Write a Winning Grant Proposal: Introduction ~ Tuesday, Jan. 22, 2:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
This workshop provides an overview of basic resources and approaches to improve your grant-writing skills. Topics covered include identifying funding, matching your project idea with a sponsor’s mission, reviewing the funding announcement for instructions, and writing effectively to address review criteria. This workshop is appropriate for faculty, research staff including postdocs, and for graduate students whose future career goals will require grant-writing. (Registration opens approx. 6 weeks prior to scheduled date.) calendar.gsu.edu/ursa

Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) Fellowship Information Session
Wednesday, Jan. 30, 10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. | Student Center East, Room 203
This session will cover the two types of awards (Doctoral and Dissertation) offered and discuss the value-added services that accompany these awards that have led to the successful graduation and employment of almost 1,000 URM Ph.D. graduates. The discussion will also address and explore how GSU can expand or better use the Doctoral Scholars Program to enhance its own goals for diversity of Ph.D. scholars and faculty. 3MT Competition: Preliminary Round ~ Tuesday, Mar. 5, 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. | University Library, CURVE
Developed by the University of Queensland, the three-minute thesis competition celebrates the research conducted by Masters and PhD students. The competition supports their capacity to effectively explain their research in three minutes, in a language appropriate to a non-specialist audience. Students selected from the preliminary round will advance to the final competition.

3MT Final Round Practice Sessions ~ Mar. 11 - 14 | By Appointment
Individual sessions to assist those advancing to the final round of the competition.

Navigating the IRB: New Regulations Governing Human Subjects Research
Tuesday, Mar. 12, 1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. | Student Center West - Room 460/462
Did you know there are new regulations governing Human Subjects Research? Are you getting ready to prepare your first IRB submission? Has it been a while since you’ve submitted an IRB application? Are you new to GSU and need an introduction to our IRB procedures? If so, please join us at our “Navigating the IRB Process” session. This session is designed to provide the novice with information that will assist in creating and submitting a human subjects research application to the Institutional Review Board (IRB).
